Re: Representation of the Republic of Croatia

Dear Mr. Minister,

Thank you for seeking to retain Patton Boggs LLP to represent the Republic of Croatia ("Croatia") to provide legal advice and advocacy regarding the concerns of Croatia raised by the April 15, 2011 decision of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia in the "Operation Storm" case, IT-06-90 (the "ICTY Case"). We look forward to working with you on this engagement.

More specifically, our engagement is intended to address certain legal issues of significant international importance that arose in the ICTY Case, including military standards and regulations, and customary law with respect to "Operation Storm," as well as any other legal issues that might also be raised in consultation with you.

To ensure that Croatia and we have a common understanding of the terms of our representation and to comply with the rules of professional conduct for the jurisdictions in which we practice, I have enclosed a statement describing the standard terms of engagement for legal services to be provided by Patton Boggs LLP. The terms of engagement cover such matters as our procedure for handling potential conflicts of interest, fees, costs and expenses, billing arrangements and terms of payment. Please review the document carefully to ensure that it comports with your understanding. This letter supplements and modifies the enclosed terms of engagement.

My partner, Thomas Hale Boggs, Jr., and I will be primarily responsible for the work done on behalf of client. We will supervise the lawyers and other professionals who may work on this project. I anticipate that associates, staff attorneys, legal assistants, specialists and/or in-house consultants will also assist in the matter.

We will bill Croatia at a rate of $60,000.00 per month beginning August 1, 2011 for the term of the agreement. In addition to our fees for legal services, we also charge separately for certain costs and expenses as described in the enclosed statement. Our representation will commence when we receive a check or confirmed wire transfer in the amount of $60,000.00 as an advance payment of fees for the fees due under the first month of the agreement. We will begin charging our fees against this payment and credit them on the billing statement. Thereafter, payment should be due on the first day of the month.

The term of this agreement would be for a period of one year, beginning August 1, 2011 and concluding July 31, 2012, with an option to renew for an additional year upon agreement of the parties.

For purposes of this agreement, in the event of any dispute over its terms and conditions, Patton Boggs and Croatia accept that the governing law for this agreement is the internal substantive law of District of Columbia of the United States, the parties accept the jurisdiction of the federal or other courts of competent jurisdiction in the District of Columbia over any dispute regarding this agreement, without regard to the conflict of laws principles, and Croatia waives any defense of sovereign immunity for purposes of litigation and enforcement of any judgment regarding this contract.

If you agree with these terms and conditions, including those set forth in the standard terms of engagement, please sign in the place noted below and return the signed copy to Patton Boggs to my attention. If you have any questions about these terms or would like to discuss them, please call me as soon as possible so as not to impede our commencing work on your behalf. These terms and conditions will apply to any future work we undertake for you unless we send you a new letter reflecting different terms and conditions.

We look forward to working with Croatia to achieve a successful result.

Very truly yours,

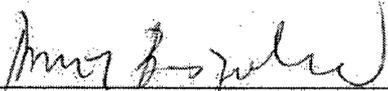

PATTON BOGGS LLP
